'The Aspiring Spanish Linguist'

Welcome to the Aspiring Spanish Language Pathway.

Studying Spanish is a fantastic choice because it opens doors to a wide range of opportunities, both academically and professionally. Spanish is spoken in more than 20 countries, and it is the second most widely spoken language in the world.

Possible careers include translating and interpreting, journalism, law, publishing, museum curator or working for an international company.

To improve your Spanish we recommend that you try:

- Immersing yourself in Spanish through films, TV series and films.
- Participating in language competitions or cultural events
- Reading graded books in Spanish
- Completing an EPQ related to Spanish language or culture.

Good luck! If you have any questions, please come and find me in the K Block.

Mrs T Avila | Head of Spanish

Work Experience and Events

Work experience in Spanish gives you the chance to use the language in real situations and experience Spanish-speaking culture beyond the classroom. Whether you're learning how to communicate in a restaurant, developing listening and comprehension skills, or working abroad, these opportunities help you see how language skills apply in everyday life.

Spanish-related experiences can include:

- All work experience opportunities in Spain, giving you an excellent opportunity to practice every day Spanish.
- Food and hospitality in Spanish restaurants
- Work and study programmes abroad, including Work+Study for Teens or Blue Stamp Travel's work experience in Spain (costs may apply)
- Language schools, such as Inlingua Cheltenham, where Bournside students often secure placements.

These opportunities help build confidence, communication and cultural awareness, while strengthening applications for future study, travel or employment.

Good luck!
